About Dick Pieper: Dick achieved national recognition in the horse industry showing Mr Jim 45 to the title of AQHA Honor Roll Reining Stallion in 1972. In 1977, he won the NRHA Futurity and then came back to be Co-Reserve Champion of the Futurity in 1979.

That same year, he also won his first AQHA World Championship title in the Junior Reining on the same horse, Cee Blair Masota. Between 1976 and 1995, Dick rode 23 NRHA Futurity finalists and was a top twenty money earner for many years following. In 1985, he showed Miss Cee Blair to the title of NRHA World Champion Open Horse, setting a record for money earned in one year that was not broken until 1994 when her son, Cee Blair Sailer, also trained by Dick, established an even higher record. In 1991, Dick Showed Texas Kicker to AQHA World Champion Junior Reining Horse setting another record score of 228 in the finals. During his career spanning four decades, Dick won or placed in every major reining event on the North American Continent and several in Europe. Dick continues to train their personal young horses for competition and sale. Pieper Ranch is home to AQHA Reining World Champion, Texas Kicker and leading cutting horse performer and sire Playgun along with twenty exceptional broodmares and their offspring. They breed approximately a hundred outside mares annually and raise and market the produce of their own broodmare band. Dick continues to show as frequently as possible in the NCHA events, judges NCHA, NRCHA, AQHA, and RHAA shows and lends his many years of judging experience to several associations on judging matters. Dick served as president of the National Reining Horse Association for five years and is a National Reining Horse Association Hall of Fame Inductee. He is also currently active on the judges committee of the National Reining Horse Association and has been an American Quarter Horse Association approved judge for eighteen years. He has judged the All American Quarter Horse Congress, the AQHA World Show, the AQHA Youth World Show, and the NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity. Dick is also a highly respected judge for the National Cutting Horse Association and the Ranch Horse Association of America.
